

4.5:146

(Amendment 7 to
B. A. I. Order 146.)

United States Department of Agriculture,

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY.

AMENDMENT 7 TO RULE 3, REVISION 1.—TO PREVENT THE SPREAD OF SCABIES IN SHEEP.

Amendment effective on and after March 15, 1910.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

The fact has been determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, and notice is hereby given, that the contagious and communicable disease known as scabies is not now known to exist, or exists to a slight extent only, among sheep in the State of Washington, and in certain portions of the States of Oregon, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, and the Territory of Arizona, all of which areas are now quarantined by Rule 3, Revision 1, dated March 22, 1907, and effective April 15, 1907.

Now, therefore, I, JAMES WILSON, SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE, do hereby remove and revoke the quarantine placed by Rule 3, Revision 1, upon the following area, to wit:

The State of Washington; that portion of Oregon lying east of the Cascade Mountain Range; the counties of Clark, Lincoln, and Nye, in the State of Nevada; the counties of Beaver, Piute, Iron, Garfield, San Juan, Washington, and Kane, in the State of Utah; the counties of Mohave, Coconino, Yavapai, Yuma, Maricopa, Gila, Pinal, Graham, Pima, Cochise, and Santa Cruz, in the Territory of Arizona; and all that portion of the State of Colorado lying north of a line beginning at the northwest corner of the Southern Ute Indian Reservation in Montezuma County; thence due east through the counties of Montezuma, La Plata, and Archuleta to the western boundary of Conejos County; thence northerly along the western boundary of Conejos County to its northwest corner; thence west to the southwestern corner of Rio Grande County; thence north along the western boundary of Rio Grande County to the northeast corner of Mineral County; thence westerly following the La Garita Mountains to the western boundary of Saguache County; thence north along the western boundary of Saguache County to its northwest corner; thence east along the southern boundary of Gunnison County to its southeast corner; thence continuing in an easterly direction along the Sangre De Cristo Mountain Range to the southwest corner of Custer County; thence following the southern boundary of Custer County to its southeast corner; thence north along the eastern boundary of Custer County to its northeast corner; thence east along the southern boundary of Fremont County to its southeast corner; thence north along the eastern boundary of Fremont County to a point on said boundary crossed by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway running from Woodruff to Taylors; thence following said Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway in an easterly direction to its intersection with the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad in Pueblo County; thence following the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad easterly to Pueblo; thence continuing in an easterly direction, through the counties of Pueblo, Otero, and Kiowa, along the Missouri Pacific Railway to a point where it crosses the Kansas-Colorado state line.

The effect of this order is to release from quarantine all of the State of Washington; that portion of Oregon lying east of the Cascade Mountains; the counties of Lincoln, Clark, and Nye, in the State of Nevada; the counties of Beaver, Piute, Iron, Garfield, San Juan, Washington, and Kane, in the State of Utah; all of the Territory of Arizona except Navajo and Apache counties; all of the State of Colorado except the counties of Conejos, Rio Grande, Saguache, Huerfano, Costilla, Las Animas, Baca, Bent, Prowers, and portions of the counties of Montezuma, La Plata, Archuleta, Pueblo, Otero, and Kiowa.

Done at Washington this first day of March 1910.

Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

JAMES WILSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.
